Expertise Overview

Veronica Wells is a senior associate attorney on the commercial liability defense and personal lines practice groups. Her practice focuses on negligence, premises liability, slip and fall, and automotive defense.

Veronica graduated from Western State College of Law in 2014. Prior to this she graduated from Oakland University with a B.A. in psychology in 2010.

Before joining Smith Freed Eberhard, Veronica worked as a public defender in Thurston County where she mostly did involuntary commitments, civil contempt cases, and some domestic violence misdemeanors. Following this, Veronica worked for Plaintiff's Personal Injury firms, working mostly automobile cases and slip and fall cases.

Veronica was raised in Michigan but came to Seattle after law school. Outside of work, she loves to travel and go to museums.
